

BILL AMIRAULT

SENIOR CONSULTANT

Bill brings extensive experience as a Career Development Coach and Mentor. He has helped hundreds of motivated professionals at all levels find their next job or strategically manage their career with proven tools and 1-on-1 expertise that highlight each person's unique value and passion.

Prior to his outstanding coaching career, Bill spent numerous years in marketing, brand management, consulting and advertising with various CPG firms and pharmaceutical/ healthcare companies including General Electric, Procter & Gamble, Schering-Plough, Johnson & Johnson and Del Monte Foods.

Bill has an undergraduate degree in Industrial Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, NY and an MBA from Indiana University in Bloomington, IN, where as graduate assistant, he became the career counselor in one of the leading business placement offices in the U.S. Additionally, Bill is a published author and extremely active in sports and community activities.

CATALYST

TALENT | LEADERSHIP | CULTURE